sigh 1488. These guys just can't get enough of the ol' 14 Words and Heil Hitler combo.

Say hello to Colorado Springs neo-Nazi, biker, and human cringe factory John Smith.

John's most prominent chest tattoos are also his fashiest. The Volknut (left) SS Bolts (Center) and Odal Rune (Right) are all symbols very popular with neo-Nazis.

John LOVES the neo-Nazi slogan 1488. He loves it so much, it's his main email handle on his business card and the screen name on his Instagram! Big yikes, John.

John is yet ANOTHER one of those neo-Nazi dorks that tries to disguise his dogshit racism with esoteric viking/pagan symbolism. His Facebook page is just a dumpsterfull of this kind of crap:

When he's not showing off his sweet SS bolt tattoos or sharing super cringe-inducing memes like this or this

Fuck what you heard.
I keep my circle small
and my wall high.

I don't play games and I'll treat you the same way you treat me. Be careful not to underestimate me. My heart is big and I do love hard,
but I don't give a fuck even harder

John works as a handyman who brilliantly named his company Hammers Inc. Er ... maybe it's HANmers?!? Which is it, John? Personally, we like HANmers because, ya know, spelling is hard.

Feel free to leave your thoughts and feedback about John and his business.

If you still think you'd like John to do some construction/handyman work for you, all we can say is, "Good luck getting a permit" – because as far as we can tell, he doesn't have a license. Colorado's just chock-full of white-supremacist construction hacks.

Be sure to ask him for the Nazi Buddy discount, though! After all, you're his kin, right?

Really, who wouldn't want to give this guy money? Just look at his company website's portfolio:

WHO KNOWS, because John's fly-by-night construction business seems a tad disorganized.

Not sure, John! Maybe it's the spelling and grammar, or maybe it's the WHITE SUPREMACIST BULLSHIT.

Pretty sure it's that one, actually.

Peckerwood is a term certain neo-Nazis use to refer to themselves.

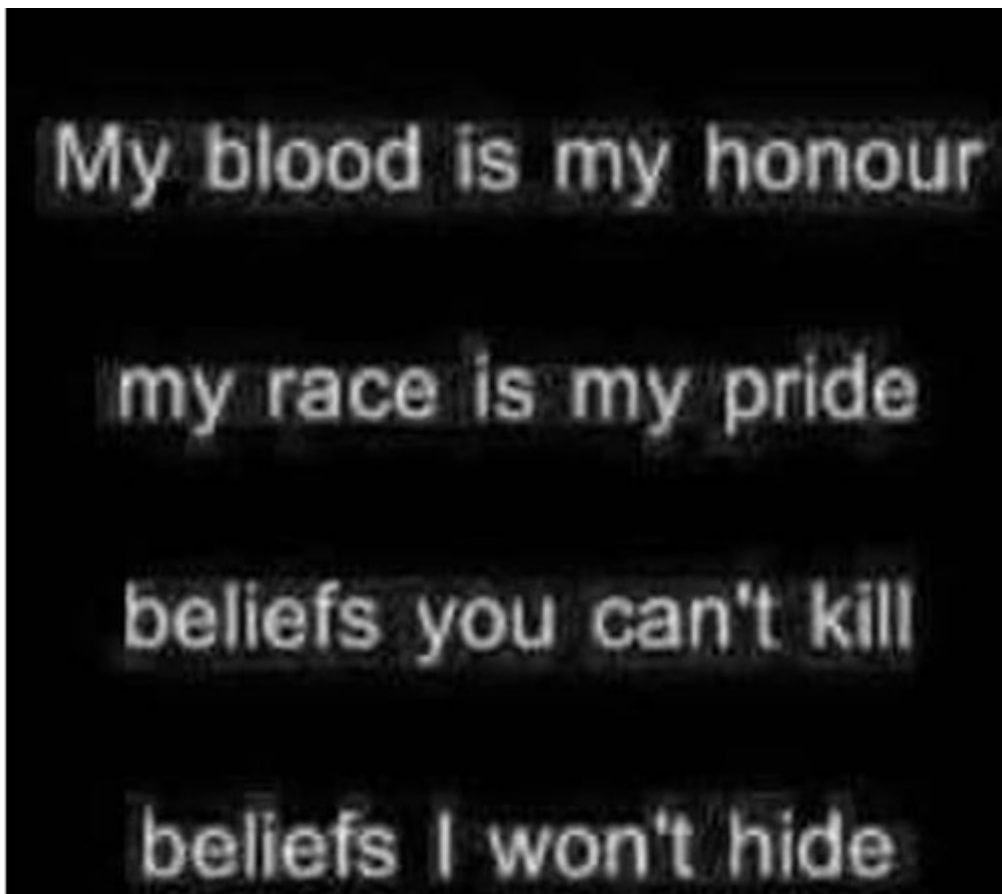

Oh, and what would a neo-Nazi profile be without a “blood and honour” reference?

Blood and Honor (Honour) is a classic neo-Nazi slogan.

Apparently those beliefs include the idea that “punching b—— in the face” is a good thing to do.

don't ask me for advice, i still think punching b...s
in the face is the right answer.

And like all Certified Badasses™, John has a Guy Fieri flame-enhanced button-down shirt.
